BQE BillQuick Wins Awesome Application and Customer Satisfaction Awards

Torrance, CA – November 11th, 2014 – BQE Software Inc. is excited to announce that its flagship product, BillQuick, has been awarded the "2015 Awesome Application Award" for the fifth time by The Sleeter Group, an accounting technology company dedicated to helping accountants and small businesses achieve greater efficiencies and higher profits. Every year, The Sleeter Group researches the accounting software marketplace to identify and recognize the companies and products that deliver amazing value to their customers.

"BQE Software is a special kind of company and BillQuick is one of the top applications we know about," said Doug Sleeter, Founder and President of The Sleeter Group. "It is a repeat winner of our 'Awesome' award because the product serves the professional services business so well. BillQuick's integration with QuickBooks is top notch, and BQE Software constantly keeps improving the whole product – from features, to support and training, and even to how customers buy and install via the Internet."

Additionally, BillQuick has won the "K2 Quality Award" for Customer Satisfaction by K2 Enterprises, the preeminent provider of technology-focused education to accountants and other professionals. K2 has been providing the K2 Quality Awards for the past 13 years. "The products represented by K2 quality awards are among the best of class available today," said Randy Johnston, Executive V.P. of K2. "Our instructors and attendees recognize the merits of BillQuick and the benefits that users enjoy."

"Winning these two prestigious awards clearly indicates that BillQuick is the true leader in project-based accounting software for professional businesses," said Shafat Qazi, CEO and Founder of BQE Software. "I'm very proud of our team and partners for constantly pushing BQE to be at the forefront of technology, innovation and customer service."

Shafat Qazi accepted the 2015 Awesome Application Award on behalf of BQE Software at The Sleeter Group's annual Accounting Solutions Conference that is currently taking place at Caesar's Palace in Las Vegas, Nevada.
